

STEFANIE STRAUB

*Vice President & General Counsel
Mars, Incorporated*

Stefanie became a member of the Mars Leadership Team in 2018. As Vice President and General Counsel, she oversees all legal matters globally for Mars, Incorporated.

Stefanie joined Wrigley in 2001 in Europe as a lawyer and has since worked in various senior legal roles with broad geographic responsibilities, including Europe, Middle East, Africa, India and Asia Pacific.

In 2010, she moved to the U.S. to lead the Legal function for the Wrigley Americas region. She became Vice President, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary for Wrigley globally in 2014. Her role later expanded to include the Chocolate business under Mars Wrigley Confectionery. She led the legal work for the integration of Chocolate and Wrigley globally and played a key role in the KIND partnership, where she was critical to the success of the operational aspects and antitrust clearance of the transaction.

Stefanie received her J.D. from University of Würzburg, Germany and attended the University of Salamanca Law School, Spain. She is a licensed attorney in both Germany and the United States. She speaks German, English, Spanish and French. Stefanie enjoys skiing, traveling and spending time with her husband Andrew, their children Marlou (3), Claire (16), Jake (19) and their beagle Penny.

